The Savannah Empire Pennysaver is published and HOME DELIVERED each Wednesday, and has been for the past 23 years. It serves Chatham, Effingham and Bryan counties with a circulation of over 75,000.

The strength of the Pennysaver is it's loyal readers. In a recent survey when asked "where do you look for purchasing decisions and information?" 62% responded, "The Pennysaver." In addition, 54% answered the Pennysaver when asked, "what source would you choose first when placing a classified ad?" Both of these responses were considerably higher than any of the other choice of print products in the Savannah market.

When you place your advertising in the Pennysaver, you have confidence that it is the widest circulated publication in the Savannah area with a very strong loyal following and readership.
