YOUR AMAZING CAREER STARTS NOW!
Cardinal Glass Industries was established in 1962 as a fabricator of sealed insulating glass units in St. Louis Park, MN. Throughout the years, the company has grown and consists of a Mineral facility, Float Glass facilities, Tempered Glass facilities, Coated Glass facilities, Insulating Glass facilities and Laminated Glass facilities. These facilities are located throughout the United States.

Cardinal’s premier product is the Insulating Glass Unit which consists of two or three coated LoE lites of glass that are assembled into an insulating unit. The oxygen between the lites is replaced with Argon. The units are framed with aluminum or stainless steel and then double sealed.

Cardinal is the largest producer of insulating glass units in the world.
